ELEVEN KILLED IN COLLISION ON THE C. P. R. YESTERDAY

Imperial Limited Crashed Into a Harvesters' Excursion Train.

(Bulletin Special.)

Sudbury, Ont., Sept. 12.—At 7.30 this morning the Imperial Limited No. 2 from Winnipeg crashed into a waiting train of coaches filled with harvester excursionists at Azilda, the first station west of Sudbury on the C.P.R. Eleven of the occupants of the first coach were killed and a great many injured. Seven were killed instantly and five since died from their injuries. The two trains came together with terrific force and made a complete wreck of both engines and five cars. The engine of the colonist train did not leave the track but jumped as they came together. The dead are: Two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schade, Moncton, aged 1 and 14 years; Dr. Milne, South Woodville; J. J. Noble, Harrie; Frank Blackwell, Bellevue avenue; Toronto, a member of the Toronto police force; Perry Baker, Collingwood; Lewis Paff, New Hamburg; Sheit, New Hamburg; Lewis H. ## DIVIDED UP THE MONEY

Directors Who Served Without Fees
Received Bonuses

(Bulletin Special)

Toronto, Sept. 12.—A deposition made by A. J. Pattison of $30,000 which he received as a consideration for the Life Insurance Company was disclosed before the insurance commission yesterday. Mr. Pattison testified that he had paid the directors named in the schedule the maximum price quoted for Home Life stock at any time although he admitted there had been a considerable impairment of capital and in addition they received out of the $30,000 sums varying in amount up to $1,250 because they had received no dividends and had given years of service without fees. The stock of W. J. Firstbrook brother of John Firstbrook, permanent chairman of the directors was included in the transaction and he, too, received a similar bonus although not a director.

baggage coaches of the limited telescoping the first passenger car. The dead and injured were all taken out of the first car of harvester train, none being injured in the other cars or on the east bound express. The engineer of the eastbound train states that the brakes refused to work. The crew escaped by jumping.

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—A head-on collision occurred on the C.P.R. some time this morning at Azilda station, seven miles west of Sudbury between the transcontinental due here at 3 p.m. this afternoon and a homeseekers' excursion train bound for the west. The excursionists were said to be from the Toronto district. There were three trains of the excursion party and the collision took place between the transcontinental and the third section. No very reliable information can be obtained here but it is said that there are twelve persons dead and many injured. The killed are said to be on the excursion train. The railway authorities expect the passengers of the transcontinental to reach here about three o'clock tomorrow morning but are not at all certain on this point.

TORPEDO BOATS MADE TRIAL DASH

German Fleet Dashed to British Coast
Undetected.

(Bulletin Special)

London, Sept. 12.—During the German naval manoeuvres on the night of Sept. 3rd thirty-six torpedo boats accomplished the extraordinary feat of dashing for the British coast and returning without being detected. The nominal purpose of the raid across the north Sea was to search for the German fleet which, however, the torpedo boat officers knew were lying off Heligoland.

HODGE GOES HOME.

Garry Hodge, catcher for the Edmonton club, left for the home of his childhood in Astoria, Oregon, where he goes to accept a position as shipping clerk for the Astoria Brewing Co. The position offered him more remuneration than ball playing and it is not likely that the fat boy will peer through the bar wire any more. Hodge has made a host of friends in Edmonton and they unanimously vote him all wool and a yard wide.

JACK DOWNS, FARMER

Makes Hay While the Sun Shines and Then Opens a Conservatory of Muscular Development.

Jack Downs is in town again, after having spent a week on the verdant prairie, and is opening up an athletic academy at 231 Queen's avenue.

When Jack blew into the sanatorium this morning with 16 or 18 feet of Hamill's rope, the sporting editor started to move for the door, but the wrestling gentleman assured him that it was merely part of his tools in trade as a rancher.

Downs has a line of training which certainly should put him in condition. He has located a homestead out west of Ponoka where he goes out and pitches hay and stocks wheat to get his muscles pliable, and incidentally to gather the crop. He reports that he has just completed gathering a bountiful harvest and is in town now for the winter. He is opening his Queen's avenue athletic rooms today and will take in and train any one who wants to go in for a little physical culture. If the towns take to the athletic idea he is going to install a large up-to-date gymnasium with baths and all the latest apparatus. Incidentally, he is going to train Kenny Blatchford and get a few matches for him with some of the fast ones. Downs believes that Blatchford is a comer in the wrestling game and he is going to give him the training and experience necessary to success. This winter will probably see some of the best wrestling in Canada right here in Edmonton.

MAN MURDERED IN WINNIPEG

Train Crew Find Expiring Victim—
No Clue to Murderer.

Bulletin Special

Winnipeg, Sept. 12.—Angus Ferguson, recently of Snowflake, was murdered in the north end of the city tonight. The crew of a freight, pulling into the C. P. R. depot, saw a man rush across the tracks and fall against the train. The train was stopped at once and on investigation Ferguson was found with his head one quarter severed from his body. There were other wounds on the head and face. He had considerable money on him, and a gold watch. He came originally from Glasgow, where he leaves a wife. There is no race of the murderer.

WOULD ABOLISH THE COUNCIL.

Regina Standard: H. F. Mytton at the close of the meeting last night dropped a bombshell into that placid arena by giving notice of a motion for the next meeting to the effect that the city should be governed by commissioners instead of the city council as at present constituted.

Mr. Mytton is of the opinion that the present aldermen are slackers, and that the business of the city should be in the hands of paid commissioners, or at least that appears to be the meaning of the motion.

Mr. Laird pointed out a fact that had escaped Mr. Mytton's attention, namely that it was no more possible to have paid commissioners without a council than to have bricks without straw, for the commissioners are selected from the aldermen. Mr. Mytton let it go at that and his motion will come up for further discussion at It is just four years ago this week the next meeting of the board.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE.

The general conference of the Methodist church in Canada meets in Montreal this week.

The basis of representation for each conference is, one minister and one layman for every twelve ministerial members within the bounds of an annual conference. The Alberta conference are ending as their delegate the following delegation:

Rev. G. W. Kerby, Rev. T. C. Buchanan, Rev. Dr. Riddell, Rev. J. M. Harrison, Rev. A. R. Aldridge, W. E. Hunt, A. B. Cushing, J. E. Fowler, P. E. Bulchart, A. E. Grady.

Four years ago the general conference appointed a committee of eminent men to report and hold conferences with the committees appointed by the Presbyterian and Congregational churches to consider and report on the desirability of church union, that report will come up in the regular order and will naturally be discussed.

The Alberta conference has a strong memorial along this line.

A memorial has been forwarded praying for admission of laymen to all the church courts on equal footing with ministers. It was referred back to the committee to expressly interpret the phrase "equal footing".

The memorial asking that baptized children of church members be officially recognized as church members reads as follows:

"To amend section 76 of the discipline (1922) by adding the words, 'Moreover the names of all our children shall be placed upon a roll to be known as the roll of infant members in order that they may be trained and instructed in the doctrine, principles and duties of the Christian religion in accordance with the baptismal service and that the provisions following sections 77 and 78, it being understood that this roll shall be revised from year to year, as the facts shall require.'"

Alberta's Population Numbers 185,000.

CANADIAN IS PROMOTED

Sir Edward Girouard Becomes Assistant Quarter Master General

(Bulletin Special.)

London, Sept. 12.—Sir Edward Girouard has been promoted to assistant quartermaster general and Lieut. W. K. B. Blair has been appointed instructor of military topography of the R.M.C. at Kingston. The King has approved of the appointment of Geo. Killmaster as consul for United States at Port Rowan, also George Spotts at Sault Ste. Marie.

privileges and duties of the Christian religion in accordance with the baptismal service and that the provisions following sections 77 and 78, it being understood that this roll shall be revised from year to year, as the facts shall require.

"To amend the first three lines of section 78 so that it shall read as far as practicable, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to form the children into catechism classes."

With each succeeding general conference there are a number of new men elected and it is very difficult for some of them to secure a hearing on account of their inexperience. The older and more experienced men are skilled in debate and the laws of the church, are alert and guard the gateway that would admit too drastic changes into the policy of the church.

Rev. Dr. Carman will preside. He has been general superintendent of the Methodist church since 1883, i.e. since the union of the various Methodist churches. He is regarded as an expert in rules of order and is highly respected and honored as a most efficient executive officer. Previous to the union he was bishop in the Methodist Episcopal church.

Changes that have a far reaching influence will be made. The Methodist churches in Japan are seeking a union of the churches operating in that country. The Canadian Methodist church, the Methodist Episcopal church, south, have already held conferences and unanimously decided to unite as one church in Japan.

Dr. Carman and Rev. Dr. Sutherland visited Japan recently seeking information and conferring with the Japanese and have also visited the officials of the churches in the United States operating in Japan.

It is likely that the united church in Japan will be under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Methodist church.

There will be vacancies in the general conferences officer. Rev. Dr. Henderson, associated missionary secretary will return to the pastorate. A number of names have been mentioned as his successor.

Rev. G. B. Bond, B.A., brother of Premier Bond of Newfoundland, has resigned his position as editor of the Christian Guardian.

Mr. Greighton, B.A., B.D., the assistant editor, is favorably mentioned for the position.

Rev. Dr. John McLean, editor of the Western, Halifax, and Dr. Crews have also been suggested.

There are a number of men who are well qualified by education and experience to fill this important post with credit to themselves and the church.

Rev. Ernest Thomas of Lachute, Rev. E. R. Young, B.A., Jr., are both men who are cheerful, vigorous men who would do yeoman service in the editorial chair.

Minneapolis Firm Will Start Branch Works

Bulletin Special

Portage La Prairie, Sept. 12.—Minneapolis capitalists have completed arrangements for establishing a branch of the Detachable Boiler Flue Company. They are to build a manufacturing one hundred by seventy five feet and to employ one hundred men. American capitalists today purchased 1400 acres of land in the Macdonald district. The price paid was a good one.

CALGARY WILL ENTERTAIN MANUFACTURERS

Calgary Herald: By a practically unanimous vote the city council decided at last night's special meeting to borrow $500 to be devoted to entertaining the members of the manufacturers' association when the visit Calgary one week from Friday.

The meeting was addressed by Senator Loughheed, P. Burns, and A. E. Cross, who were present as representatives of the citizens who met Monday afternoon and decided that the council should endeavor to arrange for a special fund for the purpose of entertaining. It was necessary to arrange the money in a special manner, as the appropriation for entertainment and other special purposes had already been exhausted.

All the aldermen were in favor of the principle of entertaining such an influential body as the members of this association. Alderman Graves was opposed to overdrafts, and said he voted against it on this ground, but all the others were in favor.

As a result of last night's action the visitors will be presented with illustrated souvenirs of the city, made up of copies of Picturesque Calgary, handsomely bound in Morocco. In addition to the splendid views of the city which this publication contains, there will be eight pages of matter descriptive of the advantages which the city offers for the establishment of manufacturing industries. There will also be a drive around the city to give the visitors an opportunity to see Calgary's advantages. Whether there will be a luncheon or a banquet will depend on circumstances.

The mayor announced that it was a special meeting called to deal with the question of making an appropriation to entertain the manufacturers.

POLICE COURT

A case came up in the police court last night which throws some light on the management of the International Hotel. Last Saturday night Max Ferby went down to the basement of the hotel to get a gallon of beer. He got into a row with W. Hardy, who hit him with a bottle, and assaulted him with his fists.

Cable, the bartender, gave evidence considerably at variance with what Ferby. Another witness, Michael P. say, swore that Ferby struck Hardy and in his story disclosed the fact that it is no trouble to get beer at the International after hours.

Hardy gave evidence in his own behalf and admitted he had obtained beer at the hotel after hours.

The case was on for an hour, but came up again this evening. Information has been laid against the men who are known to have procured the beer after hours, and against the hotel. These charges will be laid before Magistrate Wade this evening.

Wing Hong Long, a Chinese caterer, who keeps a restaurant with a shooting distance of the police station, will appear in police court this evening to answer to a charge of having liquor without a license. When the police raided Wing's place they discovered five cases of Chinese bottled headlamps, but so far no member of the police force has been able to tell the chief the names of all the fancy drinks. There are all kinds of bottles, round square, oblong and conical-shaped, containing fire-water of various colors, ranging from the rich purple of the Szechuan to the sparkling green of the fish flag, and accompanied by small from the subtle aroma of the Chinese into the penetrating odor of a Chinese cellar. Such a wonderful collection of choice and fancy Asiatic drinks has never been seen in the city before, and if Wing ever makes a confession it would be interesting to learn what the names and derivations of the different samples were.

A LEGAL MIX-UP SOLVED

Bulletin Special
Toronto, Sept. 11.—The Coal Hill saw today for the first time in its history a judgment of the privy council in revision of the judgment of a judge of the high court in chambers. The case was an alien labor case in which the Attorney-General of Canada sought to deport Cain and Gilhula, employees of the Port Marquette railway, who had been imported from the States. Judge Anglin held that the alien labor act under which deportation was to take place was ultra vires. The privy council holds it intra vires. Though the attorney general wins his point, the Dominion will have to pay costs of the railway amounting in legal costs to $374.41. On this side of the Atlantic the costs are about $200.

PHENOMENAL GROWTH OF COLEMAN.

The Frank Parker: On Thursday of last week the record of all the Pass mines was broken by the International Coal and Coke Co. of Coleman, when they mined and shipped in one shift 1,751 tons of coal. This was done without any special effort on the part of the company, and during the shift the box car loader was out of commission for fully an hour. This mine is now in a position, if cars can be furnished, to easily mine and handle fully 2,000 tons of coal every day. The management of this property have reason to be proud of the record they have made when we take into consideration that outside of the Hillcrest mine, their property is the youngest mine in the Pass to be opened and developed.

It is just four years ago this week, since the first coal mined from this property was taken out and tested in the coke ovens at Fernie. The property at that time was known as the Paulson mine and under the charge of Mr. Newport. The coal was first opened up at a point on the veins about three miles back in the hills from the present site of the town of Coleman, where is now situated the present mines and workings of this company. The coal was sacked and brought out to Blairmore by pack horses. A. P. McDonald now of Coleman, but at that time running a livery stable at Frank having the contract. More depended upon the test made on this coal than anyone here in the time dreamed of, for on it rested the fate of what is today the International Coal & Coke Co., and the prosperous town of Coleman.

At that time the present site of the mine and workings had not even a prospect hole upon it or the veins uncovered, that portion of the property then belonged to the Hudson Bay Co., and the land upon which are now situated the up-to-date plant and works was a series of creek bottoms, bog and brush. The town of Coleman was not even thought of, and yet lacks over a month of being three years since it was laid out into town lots and the first building started. Many of Coleman's foremost citizens were then in the Pass, but took little interest in the tests being made upon the coal, little they thought that today they would be a town that today has every modern convenience, on the site of what was then but a barren waste where the coyotes held nightly revel.

LOCAL ITEMS

—Mr. R. Lemarchand has rented his store and will clear out his entire stock at once at sacrifice prices.

—The annual report of the Canadian Press Association has been issued.

—A new sidewalk has been completed on Roland street from Syndicate avenue to the foot of the hill.

—The Millinery Opening of Messrs. F. Perkins & Co. takes place Friday afternoon.

—A meeting of the Builder's Exchange will be held in the exchange tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow (15th) at 2 o'clock. J. Ren, secretary.

—Mr. Sydney Morris, instructor in singing and voice culture, Alberta College gave an instructive lecture on this subject to the students of the College last night.

—Regina has a society paper. The first issue appeared on Saturday, September 1st. It will appear weekly and be devoted to society, music, sport and dramatic news. Burford Hooke is the editor.

—Wing Loug, of the Wing Long Co. who keeps a restaurant on Namayo avenue will appear in the police court tonight to answer the charge of keeping liquor on his premises. Seven cases of the stuff have been seized.

—There are thirty-three new buildings in process of construction or just recently built on Syndicate avenue. Three of them are stores to supply the wants of the residents who are rapidly filling this district.

—A gang of men are engaged by the C.N.R. constructing a switch from the main line of the C.N.R. at Syndicate avenue in to the city warehouse on the corner of Kinistino and Griesbach streets. The roof is being put on the warehouse today. The roof is heavy tarred paper.

—The smoke stack on the engine house of Mr. James Little's brick works was blown down yesterday afternoon by the high wind and fifteen feet broken off the upper end. A wire grip fastened to a dead poplar tree broke the tree which caused the fall. The masonry around the boiler was cracked. No one was hurt.

—W. J. Smith, the man who makes the "Christmas Globe" was in the city yesterday. He is on a jaunt around the west picking up photographs for the coming number which he says will surpass the previous records and in which the west will not be overlooked. Mr. Smith joins the chorus of visitors who talk enthusiastically of the west and its prospects. Edmonton pleased him immensely with its appearance, while its future impressed him as certain to be remarkable.

—Alphonse and Gaston produced at the skating rink last night came a trifle to early. Had it been December 12th instead of September 12th the frost would have assured skating for the winter. There may be worse actors on earth but up to the hour of going to press they have not been apprehended. The plot of the play has not yet been identified and there is a rumor that the stage manager mislaid it in the wings before the curtain went up. Certainly it never got onto the stage. The gags were each and all old enough to vote and some of them had whiskers that put them into the John Alexander Dowie class. The ladies were not beautiful neither were they graceful or musical. If it was desirable to roast the poor misguided creatures it might also be added that they could not act. The only thoroughly efficient performer was the man who took the money at the door. His hand never trembled.

B. C. FAIR EXHIBIT.

Under the auspices of the board of trade and the exhibition association Mr. T. Daly is preparing an exhibit for the B.C. provincial fair to be held in New Westminster the latter part of this month. A display of grains and grasses are being prepared and those in charge would be greatly obliged for some good samples of vegetables and garden produce. These should be left at the office of the secretary of the board of trade as early as possible on the 22nd. A grant of $300 is made by the fair management for any exhibit coming from east of North Bend, B.C. This should go far to pay the expenses of preparing and sending the exhibit and Edmonton and district stand to get the advertising practically free. The fair is the big annual event on the Pacific Coast and it is the intention that Central Alberta should be represented by a worthy exhibit.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Thomas H. Watson is building two stores on lots 12 and 13, block 4, River lot 12, facing on Jasper extension just west of Government. Cost $1,800.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pickering have returned from a trip to the coast.

PULL DOWN THE SIGNS

As a sequel to the action of the aldermen at their recent meeting, the building inspector was this morning circulating the following notices to parties owning overhead signs.

Sir: I am instructed by the city council to order the removal of all overhanging signs. You will therefore take notice that you are required to remove the sign overhanging your premises within fourteen days from this date in accordance with section 16 of by-law No. 193, or I will be compelled to take measures to enforce the same. Yours truly,

J. D. BLAYNEY,
Building Inspector.NOTED DIVINE DEAD.

Calgary Alberta: Today the Presbyterian church in Canada mourns for one of her ablest ministers. Yesterday afternoon, at the age of 34, George Johnson passed away. In Calgary he had spent so short a time that he was comparatively little known. But his personal friends and especially his fellow countrymen from Nova Scotia know that his place will be indeed hard to fill.

His collegiate course was brilliant. He passed from the famous academy of Pictou to Dalhousie college, where he led both in football and philosophy. Then, studying for the ministry, he won golden opinions of all his teachers, first in Halifax, afterwards at Oxford, Edinburgh and Berlin.

His first charge was at Digby, N. S. After that he occupied the charge of St. Andrew's, Westmount, Que., till ill health compelled him to resign. His illness was tuberculosis of throat and lungs. When at last he was advised to come west, the disease had made such headway that not even the climate of Alberta could restore him. He arrived here about two months ago.

No student was ever more deservedly popular among his fellows. He clergyman was more beloved by his parishioners. No man more merited the title "a man of excellent spirit." One hardly knew which to admire more, the rich intellectual culture or the fine Christian character of the man. He was the sort of man that church and country can ill afford to lose. The deepest sympathy is felt for his young widow in her deep sorrow. Mrs. Johnson was with her husband when he died. One infant child is now in Halifax.

Kensington

Kensington is a northern suburban rapidly close to the proposed site of the G. T. P. workshops. The vast overland traffic, increased by local traffic that is sure to result when the G. T. P. is in operation and especially when the extension is made to the Pacific, is sure to make the northern suburbs a busy railway town, employing a great number of mechanics and trainmen who must find homes in this vicinity. Lots may be purchased in Kensington from $55 up to $150. These values are pretty sure to be equalled by the increasing value of adjacent property.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE

The general conference of the Methodist Church is in session in St. James church, Montreal. The conference opened yesterday September 12. It is sixteen years since the conference met in Montreal before. Last year the conference was in Winnipeg, a recognition of the changing centre of gravity of Canadian affairs.

Previous to that conference the work of the Methodist church west of Ontario was conducted by two conferences—one for Manitoba and the Northwest, and the other for British Columbia. Today there are four conferences in the west with superintendents for missions for each province.

Probably the supreme question that will engage the conference will be the question of "union" which includes Presbyterianism, and Congregationalism two religious forces both at work a century before Methodism was born.

Another important question that is on the program for discussion is the proposed constitution for the Methodist church of Japan. The Japanese Methodist church today comprises a membership of 11,650 with a native ministry of over one hundred. The official name of this church is "Nippon Methodist Kyo Kwai."

It is now 23 years since the seven different sects of Methodists in Canada became united. At the time of the union the membership was 169,803, while the latest figures of the general conference are 317,117. It will be interesting to compare the statements of the various churches as to the number of declared adherents of each. These figures are taken from the census of 1901, and are as follows: Roman Catholics 2,229,600, Methodists 916,000, Presbyterians 842,000, Church of England 680,000.

The officers of the conference are: General superintendent, Rev. Albert Carman, D.D.; general secretary of education, Rev. John Potts, D.D.; general secretary of missions, Rev. Alex Sutherland, D.D.; general secretary Epworth league and Sunday schools, Rev. A. C. Crews; general treasurer of superannuation and general conference funds, Rev. W. S. Griffin, D.D.; editor Christian Guardian, Rev. Geo. Bond, D.D.; corresponding secretary for missions with jurisdiction over the west, Rev. Jas. Woodsword, D.D.; superintendent of missions for Saskatchewan, Rev. Thos. Lawson; superintendent of missions for Alberta, Rev. T. C. Buchanan; superintendent of missions for British Columbia, Rev. J. H. White, D.D.; secretary of general conference, Rev. Geo. Steele.

THE EAST AND THE WEST

Several newspapers in the Maritime Provinces have expressed their intention of ceasing to publish news likely to induce residents of those provinces to come west and it is reported that behind the move is a threat of eastern merchants to boycott the papers which give conspicuous prominence to western news or to articles descriptive of the western country.

The course is certainly natural and is perhaps legitimate but it is none the less regrettable both in itself and in its tendency. That the newspapers and merchants of the older provinces should view with disapprobation, and perhaps with alarm, the exodus of large numbers of patrons annually is not to be wondered at and that they should refuse to encourage this is probably not less natural though none the less unfortunate from the standpoint of many of the patrons themselves and of the country at large.

That there are thousands of people in every province east of the Great Lakes whose fortunes would be bettered by coming west is reasonable and well informed men will question and it is a matter of regret on account both of themselves and of the country that the chances of their finding this opportunity is to be limited by the exclusion of western doings from the newspapers which circulate among such classes in several provinces.

Worse still is the tendency of the movement. It is an invitation to western papers to resort to reprisals. Suppose the challenge should be accepted and the refusal to encourage eastern Canadians to come west should be matched by a refusal to encourage western people to buy in the east. Suppose the western papers exclude all news relating to the manufactures and industrial concerns of the Maritime Provinces. And suppose the challenge should be accepted still further and proportionately increased space in the western papers be devoted to the doings of the American competitor of the eastern manufacturer and dealer. Would such campaign conduce either to the welfare of Canadian interests or the strengthening of Canadian sentiment? Yet such is the species of commercial hostility which the papers of the Maritime Provinces are inviting. That the western papers will pursue any such course is improbable but if they do not it will not be for want of temptation, and if they do there will be no censure due them from their contemporaries in the Maritime provinces.

If the west is under obligation to the older provinces for thousands of settlers, the older provinces in turn are indebted to the west for the steadily growing volume of trade which has already worked a revolution in their industrial and social conditions, a revolution that is evinced by the complaints of the eastern manufacturers and farmers of a scarcity of workmen. Ten years ago the workmen could have well been spared for there was no employment for them. The eastern Canadian who comes west is not lost to the commercial life of Canada, he is merely transferred to a sphere of broader opportunities in which his effect on that life will multiply. This fact should be frankly admitted, not in words alone but in the avoidance of a course which if extended and reciprocated would work for the damage of Canadian interests, east and west.

STEAMER ON THE ROCKS

(Bulletin Special)

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 12.—The Canadian steamer Rosemount, coal laden Fort William, is on a rock about half a mile below the Detroit light-house. The steamer is three out and will have to be lightered of part of her cargo before she can be released. The vessel is said not to be leaking much. The accident was caused by thick smoke from forest fires in the vicinity which covers the surface of Lake Huron. The Rosemount is one of the fleet of English built vessels owned by the Montreal Transit company, and is valued at $50,000.

C. P. R. GUILTY OF NEGLIGENCE

(Bulletin Special)

Medicine Hat, Sept. 12.—The coroner's jury, empanelled in connection with the death of W. G. Oliver, and Engineer Rose, who was killed in the C. P. R. head-on collision here in August 31st, brought in the following verdict last night:

"We find that W. G. Oliver, and Engineer Rose came to their deaths as the result of a head-on collision between freight trains 141 and 130 running between Medicine Hat and Dunmore Junction.

"This collision was caused by the withholding of order No. 259 from Conductor Kenney of 139 by Operator Carder at Dunmore Junction.

"We consider that the C.P.R. was guilty of neglect in not having a night agent at this point, this leaving the operator free to attend to his duties as train despatcher, and in view of the fact that over thirty trains passed that point every twenty-four hours we would recommend that a night agent be placed there at once."

James R. Glover, engineer on locomotive No. 1366 died yesterday in the Medicine Hat hospital. He was operated upon and a portion of his spinal cord replaced with a section taken from the back of a dog, but his injuries were of too serious a nature for medical science to overcome.

GENERAL CONFERENCE

Montreal, Sept. 12.—Roll call was taken today at the opening of the general conference of the Methodist church, showing over 275 present, and others will be added. Some changes were made in membership, owing to inability of some members to be present. One of the chief of these was that of the Rev. Dr. Woodsword, of Winnipeg, who is seriously ill in London, England. His place was taken by T. McHaren. Election of secretary was next the order of business. The first ballot showed quite a scattering of votes, Rev. T. A. Moore, of Toronto, receiving the highest number. On second ballot Mr. Moore was elected and addressed the conference. This agenda submitted reveals a very large bill of fare, something over three hundred memorials being presented. Many of these touch very important questions and the sessions of conference will be prolonged if all are fully discussed.

CALGARY'S FIGHT WITH C.P.R. OVER CLOSING STREETS

Case Heard by Railway Commission and Postponed
Until September
17th

Calgary, too, has a dispute on with the C. P. R. about the level crossing question and the matter was brought before the Railway Commission there last week. The city made the following application under section 187 of the railway act, 1903, declaring that:

1 Those portions of, and occupied by the Canadian Pacific Railway company as a right of way, where First street east, formerly Oiler street, on section 15, First street west, formerly Scarth street, Second street west, formerly Hamilton street, in section 15, Seventh street west, Ninth street west, formerly Sixth street, and Tenth street west, formerly Fifth street, all in section 16, cross, or if continued would cross the said lands so occupied as a right of way, are public highways forming part of the said streets, and that the company do remove from off said highways all fences and other obstructions placed thereon by them.

2 And that the said company do submit to the board within a time to be specified in such order a plan and profile of such portions of the railway, its tracks and property as are or have been used as public highways on the said streets so continued across the right-of-way, or

In the alternative, and in case the board should be of the opinion that such portions of land have not been and are not public highways forming part of the said streets, or that such highways do not legally exist across said right-of-way on the said streets, for an order under section 186 of said act.

3. For the establishment and maintaining of public level highways across the right-of-way of the Canadian Pacific Railway company within the limits of the city of Calgary on the said streets.

4. For the establishment and maintaining of subways or other safeguards or the public, and the railway company on First street east, formerly Oiler street, and First street west, formerly Scarth street.

5. For specific performance and the carrying out by the railway company of two certain agreements dated 12th August, 1898, and April 8th, 1901, respectively, made between the city of Calgary and the said company, by the construction and maintenance of the subway therein referred to, and the opening of a right-of-way thereto across the company's land on the north and south, and otherwise, as provided in the said agreements.

6. For the payment of the expenses caused by the establishment and maintenance of said highways and subways so far as the same are not provided for in the said agreements.

7. For such further and other order as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

The Alberta gives the following report of the proceedings:—

This railway commission had a short visit to the city yesterday listened to a few hours argument and then went away again. The Canadian Pacific Railway, resting upon the technicality of service, declined to proceed with the case. The city argued that the C. P. R. had full information upon the case and should proceed. The commission would not instruct the company to proceed and the case was postponed until September 17.

Though the case was confined to the preliminaries, yet the case was not devoid of importance. Mr. Bennett, appearing for the C. P. R., referred to the agreement between the city and company, which was partially executed last fall, and dilated upon the inequality of a corporation repudiating its agreements. This agreement, it may be mentioned, is precisely the same as that that the company is prepared to accept at the present time.

Commissioner Killam, while admitting the importance of the agreement, decided that it had not been completely executed and could not be regarded as a binding agreement. He admitted that the company might have a case in equity for part performance.

Mr. Bennett stated that he had been instructed to bring a suit against the city at once in the courts for the completion of this partially performed agreement.

Mr. S. McCarthy was associated with J. B. Smith for the city. Wm. Lent appeared for some interested property owners.

With Mr. Bennett were R. R. Jamieson, and N. E. Brooks, of the C. P. R. Mayor Emerson, Ald. Young, Hall, McMillan, Watson, Ramsay, Clarke, Graves, City Clerk Gillis, City Engineer Speakman and a large number of citizens were present.

The application of the city naturally brought up two different and distinct principles, the first involving a wealth of legal dispute and the second a mass of details.

The city did not for a moment abandon its legal claim to the crossings. Two years ago it had sacrificed its all for this fanciful whim and at a cost that was too dear to abandon such a treasure at this time.

But suppose that the city had no legal crossings at First street east, First street west, Seventh street west, Eighth street west, Ninth street west and Tenth street west.

Mr. Bennett took the floor first and referred to the fact that the company had not received the notice of this action required by the law.

Then he proceeded to refer to the agreement between the city council and the company, which was a live question towards the last of the year of 1905. That agreement, it will be remembered, provided that the company would, in return for a right-of-way, construct a structure which is generally called a subway which crosses Second street east, with a real subway by the year 1909, 1910. Also that First street west, and Ninth street west and First street east, should be kept open and that when the company came to the conclusion that a subway should be provided, that the company should inform the city, which should be given six months to do the excavation, and then the company should put in the subway, steel and concrete structures worthy of the name. Regarding Fourth and Seventeenth street west, the company should do the entire work themselves. The city should abandon its claim for a subway further east than Second street east and get a subway under the railway bridge which crosses the Elbow river.

"That agreement," Mr. Bennett informed the commissioners, represented the three weeks solid hard work of the railway company, of R. M. Dennis, of Mr. Jamieson and of myself.

Messrs. M. S. McCarthy and J. B. Smith represented the city and at the conclusion of their side of the case

GRAIN COMMISSION

(Bulletin Special)
Port Arthur, Ont., Sept. 11.—The grain commission met in the council chamber here this morning. Joseph J. King was in attendance, but before giving his evidence, addressed the commission to the effect that his desire was that all cleaning elevators within Manitoba district should be placed by the inspection department on the same footing and that whilst discussing the question of mixing grain it was to be understood that he did not recommend the mixing of two northern with one northern or any other grades, but that secured or rejected No. 1 northern, and similarly other grades, should be allowed if satisfactorily treated, to be mixed and graded, with similar straight grades. He also expressed the opinion that rejected quality wheat after scouring could not in every case be cleaned sufficiently to enable it to be graded into straight grades.

CROPS ACROSS THE LINE

(Bulletin Special)
New York, Sept. 11.—The department of agriculture's September report on cereal crops was a decided surprise, so far as corn was concerned. It indicated an improvement of 2.1 points on Sept. 1st average condition, compared with August 1st. The condition of spring wheat on the other hand shows a decline of 3.5 points, or according to the produce exchange an estimate of 124,000,000 bushels, but the indicated crop is still about 20,000,000 bushels ahead of 1935, and adding the indicated spring and winter yields this year, gives a total of 759,671,000 bushels, 66,000,000 bushels above the combined 1935 wheat harvest, and 11,909,000 bushels ahead of the heretofore record yield of 747,660,000 bushels in 1931. Minor crops are as a rule satisfactory.

A RUSKO RIOT

(Bulletin Special)
San Francisco, Sept. 11.—A riot last night marked the departure of 150 strike breakers, brought to break the strike of the united railway employees. Surrounding by armed guards and police the men were marched half way across the square and then by strike sympathizers who hurled bricks and shouted abuse. Becoming frightened the guards and strike breakers began shooting the crowd and at Fairly building, where twenty of the armed guards were arrested. Report is from hospitals of the city indicate that a dozen persons were wounded, none seriously.

CORRECTING HISTORY

(Bulletin Special)
Toronto, Sept. 11.—At Kleinburg, a station on the C. P. R. in York county, after train No. 19 had started to pull out a passenger discovered that this was his getting off place, and without waiting to have the train stopped, jumped off, holding a child in each arm. His wife followed. All got a bad thump and one of the children was slightly injured. Another child was carried by the first prelate consecrated by Monsignor Sharratt.

position was given a considerable number of the old Snider rifle, bearing a conspicuously printed label to the effect that it was with these weapons that the Hudson's Bay people had stood off the rebellion of 1885. Any stranger to the country must have accepted the statement as absolutely accurate. The trophies were displayed in the establishment of the old historic company, right on the very spot where only a short twenty years before the event in question occurred.

"How could any person doubt the statement on the label? and yet there was not a particle of truth in it from beginning to end. In the first place the Snider never went on the war-path in 1885 at all. Secondly, nobody ever stood off any Indians of any kind whatever at the old fort, or any other place around Edmonton during that eventful year. And, lastly—wherever the company's people did get into any kind of a tight place during the rebellion, they invariably acted on the motive that discretion was the better part of valor, and promptly handed over everything in their charge to the halibut savages and got busy making out a good long bill of costs against the Dominion Government. Such is history in the making."

$4,000,000 WORTH OF TWINE

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 10.—On one of his trips of investigation into the binder twine industry, Mr. Haycock, binder twine inspector for the Dominion, stated that never before had such a quantity of binder twine been used in Canada as in this present year. The sales to the farmers totalled $4,000,000, more than 500,000 over last year's sale. Of this figure, 10,000 tons were brought into the country by the international Harvester company; 6,000 tons were made in Canada and 500 tons were shipped into the country from England.

THE PIECE RIVER GOLD FIELDS

Victoria, Sept. 10.—Announcement of the discovery of the great gold-bearing dyke in the Peace River district is not news to the provincial authorities. Information was in the department last spring, but it was thought advisable to dispatch provincial mineralogists to the scene before making the news public. Professor Robertson has accordingly been here all this summer.

The location of the shade deposit is shown in one of Dawson's reports of twenty years ago. According to his report it is near the mouth of the North Pine River, about six miles east of Fort St. John, and about seventeen miles from the boundary between British Columbia and Alberta, but this boundary is very imperfectly delineated.

An important point to remember in connection with this discovery is that while the Dominion owns three million and a half acres in this valley, this does not affect the rights of the provinces, which have control of all the precious metals. There is plenty of timber, coal and power in the neighborhood, so that all facilities are present for making a great gold field, should the accuracy of the first report be established. The department is expecting news daily from Prof. Robertson.

BRIEFS

(Bulletin Special)
Toronto, Sept. 11.—In his charge today the grand jury for the general sessions, Judge Winchester said they would deal with 26 cases: eleven for making handbombs, four theft, three breach of peace, two assault and bodily harm, and one each of conspiracy, bigamy, shooting, wounding, arson and perjury.

Halifax, N.S., Sept. 11.—Thomas Laycock, aged fourteen, was drowned at Burnt Mine Cliff this afternoon. It is supposed that he fell over the cliff, as when the body was recovered it was badly bruised.

Halifax, Sept. 11.—Robert Davidson, a miner, was instantly killed in No. 2 mine here today by a large amount of stone falling on him.

North Bend, B.C.—The viceregal train reached here tonight. His Excellency and party are all well.

Gladstone, Man., Sept. 11.—Mike Comerski, working on an extra gang between Beaver and Katrine, attempted to cross in front of the C. N. R. express this afternoon and fell, his leg being cut off between the knee and ankle. Dr. Wilmut, a passenger, attended the injured man.

For Family Colds

A reliable cough and cold cure should be always in the house ready for use the moment the first symptoms appear. It is always easier, cheaper and better to check a cold in the very beginning. It is safer, too.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, has been tested for thirty-three years, and tens of thousands of homes in Canada and the United States today are never without it.

A dealer writes: "Shiloh's Consumption Cure is without doubt the best remedy for Coughs and Colds on the market. Once used, my customer will be a regular user. I sell it everywhere."

If it were anything but the best would this be so? Try it in your own family. If it does not cure you, get back all it cost you. We take all the chances. Neither you nor your dealer can lose. Isn't that fair? 25c. is the price. All dealers in medicine sell.

Calgary's Fight with C. P. R.

Commissioner Killam informed Mr. Bennett that though the C.P.R. might have a suit in equity for part performance, yet he was not of the opinion that the board could accept the agreement between the company and city in 1905 as a binding completed contract, though they might be influenced in any finding that they might make because it was an agreement arrived at as seeming to be fair and reasonable to two parties.

As Mr. Bennett was not prepared to proceed, Commissioner Killam asked for a postponement until Monday morning, September 17.

Mr. Bennett intimated that before that time he would begin action against the city to enforce performance of the agreement in question.

New York, Sept. 12.—A Berlin cable says the Kaiser was just saved from being the victim of an anarchist plot by the timely arrest at Breslau of three foreigners who have been commissioned by the international terrorist organization to assassinate His Majesty during the military manoeuvres he is now attending in Silesia. The prisoners are an Italian of the name of Matalaci or Maccini an Austrian known as Fliegerer of Friedling and a Pole named Lanierberg or Lenderberger. Matalaci was expelled from Italy two years ago. Since then he has been associated with Russian terrorists in Geneva. He shared in the recent outrage in Poland.

Mine Centre, Ont., Sept. 12.—The planing mill and part of the plant of the Mine Centre Lumber Co. at this point was completely destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday. Four cars loaded with lumber were pushed away and saved, but three empty cars that were directly in front of the building, were destroyed. The mill was almost new, having been erected last April and was equipped with modern machinery and up to date in every respect.

Memories of The Trip Through British America

W. H. CAPWELL, in the Dallas Post, Dallas, Pa.

We left Canora at 11 o'clock in the evening. Our frequent stops had delayed us so much that at breakfast time we were still five hours from Prince Albert where we were expected to take breakfast. The country was a beautiful rolling prairie, marked only here and there by the new home and breaking of a settler, all the rest was virgin soil that never had felt the tilling of a plow. At Warman we were transferred to the C.P.R. and a run of about 71 miles northeast brought us to Prince Albert at noon. Between Warman and Prince Albert is a very fertile region, immense fields of wheat and oats testifying to the richness of the soil. A colony of Menomonees has settled in that region and their quaint habitations and surroundings attracted much attention from the "camera hounds" of the party. They are an industrious and thrifty people and although they now live in sod houses it will not be many years before they will have better ones and own about everything next to them.

At Prince Albert the mayor had proclaimed a civic holiday in our honor and the stores and most of the other business places were closed. Carriage rides and dinner at the hotels were provided. The town is still a youngster, but it has about 5,000 hustling people. It is located on the North or Big Saskatchewan river, about 25 miles above its junction with the south branch. It has three good hotels, five large lumber yards, a tannery and other factories. A steam ferry connects it with the trail to the north, and a steam dredge is working the sandbars of the river for gold with considerable success. The opportunities for making money are many in this place. The town is bound to grow, for it is a junction point of the C.P.R. and the Canadian Northern already, and the Grand Trunk has a line surveyed to reach there before long. It is pretty near the centre of a hundred million acres of wheat land, whose harvests will have to be moved over these roads to market, and property values are bound to increase.

Returning over the same road to Warman, we took the C.N.R. once more for North Battleford, arriving at about sundown, 8.30 p.m. A town 14 months old, with 5,000 people, large business blocks, grain elevators, churches, schools, concrete sidewalks and city airs, and all the result of the arrival of a railroad and hundreds of farmers who are taking up land and plowing for next year's crop. Battleford, the old town, is on the south side of the Saskatchewan, some four or five miles away. It was a trading post of the Hudson's Bay company years ago, but had no railway within 200 miles until a short time since. It was noted for being a fine stock country, and the cattlemen with their ox carts followed a trail from the south to the grassy banks of the northern river, and Battleford was one of the important stopping places. It now has about 1,200 people whose loyalty to their government and obedience to the law was signally demonstrated to us that night. Carriages with broncho teams and daredevil cowboy drivers took us two or three miles to the ferry at breakneck speed and whisked us up the bluffs to the Windsor hotel where we were tendered a banquet by the board of trade and corporation. Just as we were fairly seated, the clock struck eleven and the landlord arose and went to the barroom door, ordered all persons out and locked the door, putting the key in his pocket and resuming his seat with his guests. He did that because Canadian law says barrooms in hotels, saloons and other places must be closed at 11 o'clock and remain closed until 7 the next morning, and Saturday nights they must close at 7 o'clock and not open until seven o'clock Monday morning. We wonder if there is a hotel in Pennsylvania whose proprietor would have observed the law so strictly on such an occasion. A dance followed the banquet, and when some of our party reached their berths on the train it was three o'clock a.m. and daylight. But this was a very hundred miles north of Dallas. We regretted that we could not stay a day and get better acquainted with these hospitable people.

Some miles farther west we came to a nine-months old town, Vermilion. We were not scheduled to stop there, except to change engines and crews, but as it was about noon its good people insisted on giving us a lunch, and we all marched out upon the prairie overlooking the beautiful valley of the Vermilion river where they had set tables and prepared a dinner that would tempt an epicure. The editor of the Vermilion Sentinel gave us an address of welcome and told us something about their town and what they purposed to make it. Nothing but prairie there nine months before, now a railroad, newspaper, schools, two churches and the third projected; and some of the most enterprising people along the Canadian Northern, etc. All around them first class land awaiting the settler. With patriotic songs and cheers for King Edward, President Roosevelt and the people of Vermilion we sped forward up the grade to Edmonton, the capital of Alberta, where we arrived at 20 o'clock, Canadian railroad time, or eight o'clock in the evening, as we say. And right here let me say that the numbering of the hours up to 24, beginning at midnight, is a very sensible thing. All the railroad time pieces have two sets of figures, the first set to 12 in the outer circle, and the second set to 24 on the inner circle. In this way it is not necessary to add a.m. or p.m. to the time—twelve o'clock comes at noon, fifteen o'clock is at three in the afternoon and so on. It saves many mistakes in giving train orders, and trains on those long single track roads have to get orders every day.

It was Saturday night and many of our people wanted to get to a hotel where they could enjoy a bath, and some of them succeeded. Others did not and came back to the cars. With its 15,000 people and many large hotels, lodgings in Edmonton were very scarce. Nearly 15,000 people were living in tents waiting for houses to be built for them, and more were coming in every day. Edmonton is the present western terminal of the Canadian Northern railway, and is located on the north branch of the Big Saskatchewan river, while Strathcona, with 3,000 people, is the terminal of the Canadian Pacific, and is on the south side of the river. Edmonton is on high ground overlooking the valley, and the drainage ought to be perfect. The whole city appears to be underlain with coal, and a mine is opened near town to supply the people with fuel. Edmonton is one of the old trading posts of the Hudson's Bay Fur company and some of their old buildings may still be seen just below the city on the ground overlooking the river. In 1901 it had 1,200 people, now it has about 15,000. The municipality owns its own water, sewer, electric light and telephone plants, and now there is talk of building an electric railway. While wheat and oats are the principal crops, cattle raising is an important industry and some fine herds of Shorthorns and Galloways may be seen. I am indebted to Dr. T. H. Whitelaw for a ride in his automobile several miles out into the country to see the grain fields, and I have never seen much better crops anywhere. There were many fine gardens also, and nearly all garden vegetables appeared to do quite as well as in the States. We visited the farm of Mr. John Kennedy, who has 450 acres of oats and 200 acres of wheat, and keeps 70 head of cattle besides a number of horses. He has been in that country twenty years and never had a total failure in his crops. His wheat usually averages about 20 bushels to the acre and oats about 80 to 85 bushels. The soil is a deep black loam which makes terribly muddy roads when it rains. Water is found in plenty by digging twenty or fifty feet, but that on Mr. Kennedy's farm tasted brackish to me.

Improvements are being made rapidly around Edmonton. A site has been selected for the new capital buildings, and land values are rapidly increasing in that part of the town. A new bridge is soon to be built at a high level, connecting Strathcona and Edmonton so that cars of the Canadian Pacific can come direct into the latter place. This will make it a great railroad centre, as the Grand Trunk has a line projected to reach there in a year or two.

Sunday night we left Edmonton for Calgary, 200 miles south, arriving there early Monday morning. A short stop to change engines and we were off for the Rocky Mountains and the Canadian National Park, about which we will tell you next week.

BELIEVE ADDITION

As the city expands and its population becomes denser, suburban property becomes from time to time more valuable. For a while this year suburban property in the west went with a swing. Now the swing seems to have veered round to the east and suburban sites, all of which shows that Edmonton is pushing out on all sides to accommodate her rapidly increasing population.

Bellevue is a new suburban property that has been put upon the market this week, and judging from the sales already made it has become as popular with investors as any place heretofore upon the market in any part of the environs of the city.

This property comprises about 150 acres lying immediately east of the eastern limits of the city and extending from Alberta avenue on the north to the river's edge on the south where the Saskatchewan sweeps around in a broad curve, which gives comparatively still water on the Bellevue side, and this affords opportunity for a shingle beach.

About one third of the distance of the entire length of the property from the river rises the gradual slope of the Saskatchewan bank, having no cut bank, with Jasper avenue extension traversing the upper edge. For several blocks north of Jasper a magnificent view is obtained up and down the valley of the Saskatchewan, and away over the country to Clover Bar and Strathcona.

Taking the Alberta Hotel as the centre of the city, Bellevue is nearer the centre than Twenty-First street, and is actually closer to the centre of population than any other suburban site. Besides, there is unobstructed access to it without interruption by railway tracks.

The northerly half is immediately contiguous to the largest park in the city and within fifteen minutes' walk of the bulk of the city's population, while the south portion has the double advantage of the park and the river view.

Another feature that cannot be overlooked is that values in adjacent property are rising. For example, in Norwood, where there are good school advantages, and where values have risen from $175 to $350 this summer.

The general character of the property is high, in common with all east end property, which is higher than the city proper.

This property has been subdivided so as to preserve a driveway along the bank 120 feet wide with boulevards. The neglect of the city council to secure such a driveway along the bank in the west end has been a matter of sincere regret on the part of hundreds of our citizens. A driveway has also been reserved along the river bank, which is thirty feet above the high water mark. The river has never been known, in the memory of the oldest citizens, to have flooded the flat which forms that part below the gently sloping bank.

That this property is sure to meet with a ready demand can be judged from the fact that several conservative west end residents, and those interested in west end property have purchased here.

ANNUAL MEETING

Baseball Stockholders Will Be Brought Together Next Week and Effort Made to Establish League Ball.

If Secretary Deeton succeeds in getting the accounts straightened out and the financial end of the business wound up in time, the annual meeting of the Edmonton Baseball company will be held next week.

Baseball in Edmonton this year has been eminently successful. No money was made, but in this respect no one was seriously disappointed as it was not expected to be a financial winner. As an advertising specialty, however, it has been a way up. Thousands of people in Canada and the United States have read of the Calgary-Edmonton-Wetaskiwin ball games and the crowning feat of the season, an advertising way has been the visit of the Winnipeg team, the fastest aggregation in the Northern League, from whom Edmonton took three games out of five. Every city in Canada has read of these games and thousands upon thousands of people in United States who would be in danger of forgetting about Edmonton if the name were not mentioned again in the newspapers have been reminded once more that we are still on the map by reading of what happened to the celebrated Maroons.

This was the idea in view when the ball business was first undertaken last spring and the hope was then expressed that it would lead to big league ball next year or the year after.

Following along these lines the proposition will be brought before the annual general meeting and the stockholders will be given an opportunity to start the ball a-rolling for a big western league next year. Of course it is not safe to prognosticate too far ahead, but it is almost certain that the local feeling in favor of league ball will lead to action being taken at once in that direction.

In this particular instance, as in every other, fortune favors Edmonton and the circumstances are unusually propitious. Winnipeg, of course, is the city that is wanted in the league and just at this time it looks as though Winnipeg can be had. The Copper-Northern league, which finished up its season on the fourth of this month, is liable to go to pieces. Houghton and Calumet have both looked losses and Duluth is nothing ahead on the year's operations, while Fargo and Lake Linden have been merely hanging on. Winnipeg, by splitting its gate receipts has had to keep all the other teams alive. It is certain that Houghton and Calumet will not go through with another season, and without them the league is hardly likely to survive.

Winnipeg at the present moment is kind of flirting with Minneapolis and St. Paul trying to woo them from the western league and get them into a four-team league with Duluth as the fourth.

The disadvantage of this proposition, from the Edmonton point of view, is that it might possibly be made to stick, and it is up to the local company to act quick and win Winnipeg away from any such idea before they get in too deep with the Americans.

The proposition that Edmonton will have to promote is a six team league in which Edmonton, Calgary, Winnipeg and Brandon will be the leading features and two other towns will be brought in. Just which of the other towns will be brought in remains to be decided, but Regina and Saskatoon look likely. Regina is a good town with a population of 12,000 and as good a bunch of sports as can be found anywhere on earth, while Saskatoon is a sassy little town with more snap and ginger than Toronto and an ambition to match up with the best of them.

This would make a league purely Canadian and would include only towns where everybody knows everybody else and a healthy spirit of local rivalry would guarantee good ball, while the advertising effect in United States of having the returns published every day would be worth thousands even though it did not cost a cent.

An A. P. despatch in the Iowa Hay-makers' Advocate reading:

ALL CANADIAN LEAGUE.
At Edmonton: ..... 4
Winnipeg ..... 2
Batteries: Doyle and Hodge; Terry and Voss; umpire, Setley. Attendance 1,200; weather fine and warm; time 8 to 9:30 p.m.
That would be the kind of advertising that the Iowa mind would understand. Tell the boys in Iowa, Kansas or Illinois about the crops and they will tell you that they are from Missouri and have heard those kind of stories before; but get a two-line despatch through the Associated Press that Adams is batting .486 in the All-Canadian league and is attracting the attention of Connie Mack, or that Manager Fields was escorted off the grounds by a policeman today at Saskatoon because he disagreed with some of Umpire Setley's decisions, and you immediately have a line of talk that the farmer boys in every state in the union know all about. When they come to recognize that the northwest has an All-Canadian league better than their Three I league, or their Inter-mountain, or Northwestern or California State league or any other of their minor leagues the bright, alert, active, desirable boys who don't like to leave home when they are having a good time will be likely to conclude that Alberta is all right too and that the people here are not a day behind the states to the south when it comes to throwing in a little sport with their money-making.

This is about the way the proposition will come before the general annual meeting next week. In the meantime the directors are not losing any time. Taking advantage of the fact that the Maroons are in Calgary and that therefore both managements can be seen at one time, "Deacon" White has been deputized by the directors to go down there this afternoon and promote an arrangement for a meeting in Winnipeg at some date in the near future. Of course the scheme will be to grab Winnipeg away from the Copper-Northern or the St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth aggregation before they have time to hold any annual meetings and make different arrangements.
